Online Proctored (OP) GED® Test Pilot

- Test-takers can take the GED test from the comfort of their home or other location that meets the criteria
- Why? To create a pressure relief valve and provide more access to those ready to test and move on with the next steps in their life
- What is it? The GED test is delivered online and is continually monitored by a trained proctor and A.I.
- Who is administering the test? GED Testing Service is contracting with OnVUE to deliver the Online Proctored GED exams.
- The cost of the test during the O.P. pilot will mirror current state pricing model.
- We are not moving away from the traditional in-person test center model.

Where To Find Educator OP Pilot Resources

- https://ged.com/educators\_admins/test\_admin/

The screenshot shows the GED website's 'Educators & Admins' section. The main heading is 'Online Proctored GED Test Pilot'. Below the heading, there is a list of resources including 'Educator Webinar Part 1 - Password: 2n-gH48n5', 'Full System Check', 'Online Proctored Pilot and CBT Policy Differences', 'Online Proctored GED Test States by Phase', and 'Password for Webinar Part 2: 9C-V19X'. Two buttons, 'WEBINAR PART 2' and 'SLIDE DECK', are highlighted with a green arrow. The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with options like 'GED Program Overview', 'Teaching the GED® Test', 'State Policies', 'Test Administration', 'Become a Test Center', 'Managing Your Test Center', 'Administration Policies', 'Testing in Corrections', 'Test Center Support Lines', 'Test Accommodations', and 'GED Manager'. The 'Top Resources' section includes 'Professional Development Training' and 'Resources to Guide Your Instruction'. The GED logo is visible in the bottom right corner.
