Response Deadline: March 1, 2008

MEMORANDUM

TO: Basic Skills Directors
FROM: Bob Allen, Coordinator, NCCCLRC
SUBJECT: Great Basic Skills Staff Retreat

The Great Basic Skills Staff Retreat, an internationally acclaimed workshop experience, is scheduled at Camp Kanuga in Hendersonville, NC, from April 6-9, 2008. This is the second year for a special professional development experience for Basic Skills directors and staff. The facilitator will be David B. Gottshall, founder of this workshop that celebrates “greatness” in leadership and teaching.

This is an invitation for you and/or your staff to attend. We will accept the first 44 participants. Registration begins today. The registration cost of $387 (single room) per person will be collected at the camp. Your immediate reply to this memo will reserve your room(s).

The rules of the retreat experience include the following: no whining/gripping, no telling of war stories, equal time for all participants to share and learn experiences, and all behavior is positive and productive. Leadership/Teaching innovations, unresolved problems and creative work devices, etc will be discussed in peer group sessions. Directors and staff will be in separate work groups.

This is your official invitation. Past participants are invited to return. Response is needed before March 1, 2008. An email list will be established to provide more information for those who will attend.

Please respond to Jannai Johnson at johnsonj@ncccommunitycolleges.edu, or (919) 807-7185, with your name(s).
