RE: Learn and Earn Online ‘Facilitator’ Requirement for Community College Courses

While North Carolina high school students have had opportunities to take online college courses concurrently, Learn and Earn Online makes college courses available to all North Carolina public high school students in grades 9 through 12.

In terms of providing a facilitator, it is certainly a ‘best practice’ and should be strongly considered for college-level work. However, the System Office ‘waives’ the requirement for its Learn and Earn Online courses.

Please feel free to contact Antonio Jordan at jordana@nccommunitycolleges.edu or 919/807-7133 if you have questions.
