

Wraparound Support Services: Idea Generation & Innovation

- Student Success Counselors
  - A certain number of potentially mandatory meetings for all students in a developmental education class(es) and/or students below a certain GPA threshold
- ILC/Tutoring Center/Tutors
  - A certain number of potentially mandatory tutoring sessions/appointments for all students in a developmental education class(es) and/or students below a certain GPA threshold
- One-on-one Sessions
  - A certain number of potentially mandatory one-on-one sessions/appointments for all students in a developmental education class(es) and/or students below a certain GPA threshold
- Advisors
  - Conversations with advisors about future classes or potential pathways/classes for certain programs/certifications
- Career Coaches
  - Conversations with Career coaches about potential programs, certifications, job opportunities, internships, etc.
- ACA Classes
  - Potentially mandatory enrollment for all students in a developmental education class(es) and/or students below a certain GPA threshold
- Work-based learning placement opportunities [potential]
  - Whether this would be possible at all at this level/point in their educational journey depends on the local college, businesses in surrounding area, and student population [potential]
- Connection to Programs for certain student populations, such as the Male Minority Program for Mentoring, etc.
  - Connect with this program to strengthen support for special populations
- Connection to 'Student Aides' (naming could be different for this within different colleges/universities) [potential]
  - College students who are education majors ('teachers-to-be') in the year or so before they student teach (they have a certain number of volunteer hours required in K-12 schools as education majors for many colleges/universities).
- Outreach from Community [potential]
  - Connection with retired teachers as tutors, local church volunteers connected to local schools nearby, etc.
- Connection to one or more of the Fellows programs at colleges/universities – more information to come... [potential]