

I.E. Ready Lifetime Achievement Award

The I.E. Ready Award recognizes individuals who have made significant statewide contributions to the North Carolina Community College System. Recipients demonstrate exceptional leadership, advocacy, and commitment to advancing community colleges across multiple service areas or the entire state.

Eligibility

- Nominee must not be currently employed at a community college or the System Office.
- Contributions must extend beyond a single college, with statewide or multi-region impact.
- Past award recipients are not eligible.

Nomination Information

Nominee's Name

Nominee's Contact Information

Nominee's Role (select one):

- Advocate for the Community College System
- Retired Local Community College President, Faculty, or Staff
- Local Board of Trustees Member
- Former State Board of Community Colleges Member
- Former NC Community College Foundation Member
- Retired System Office Staff

Statewide Impact & Leadership

How has the nominee advanced community colleges across multiple regions or the state?
Please share examples of outcomes, leadership, or advocacy efforts.

Support & Commitment

In what ways has the nominee demonstrated commitment to the mission of community colleges (e.g., service, financial support, innovative initiatives)?

Overall Impact

Why is the nominee particularly well-suited for the I.E. Ready Award?

Distinctive Contributions

What sets this nominee apart from others in their contributions and leadership?