

NCEdge Trainer Profile

ANGINEEK GILLENWATER

NCEdge Trainer
NCEdge Customized Training
North Carolina Community College System

EDUCATION

- Master of Business Administration (MBA), UNC Pembroke
- Bachelor of Arts, Criminal Justice, UNC Pembroke

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Angineek Gillenwater is a training and development professional with extensive expertise in organizational development, workforce training, and project management. She partners with organizations to strengthen communication, improve performance, and build effective teams through practical, customized training experiences.

CORE FOCUS AREAS

- Leadership & Organizational Development
- Communication & Interpersonal Skills
- Team Development & Engagement
- Project Management & Process Improvement
- Workforce Training & Program Development
- Performance Improvement & Skills Alignment
- Microsoft Office & Workplace Technology Skills (Excel, Word, PowerPoint)

CREDENTIALS & CERTIFICATIONS

- Project Management Professional (PMP)
- Certified Diversity Trainer
- Entrepreneurial Mindset Facilitator
- Notary Public

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE AND BACKGROUND

Angineek brings a strong background in workforce development and higher education, with experience designing and delivering training that drives skill development and organizational performance. She has led program development initiatives within the NC Community College System and partners with organizations to create training solutions aligned with real workforce needs. She also serves as an Adjunct Instructor, teaching business and project management courses and helping develop future professionals.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE ACROSS INDUSTRIES

- Healthcare
- Higher Education
- Workforce Development
- Public Sector
- Corporate & Professional Services
- Government & Community-Based Organizations

WHAT CLIENTS CAN EXPECT

Clients can expect a thoughtful and engaging training experience that is both practical and results-driven. Angineek creates a supportive environment where participants feel comfortable learning, asking questions, and applying new skills. Her approach is highly organized and tailored to each organization, ensuring that training is aligned with real needs and delivers meaningful outcomes. Participants leave with greater clarity, confidence, and tools they can immediately use to improve communication, strengthen performance, and contribute more effectively within their teams.